

With the aging population, the need for strategies to promote aging without disability is increasing with respect to both the older individuals, as well as the society on a whole. This meeting is a workshop on the concept of frailty – opportunities and boundaries. Why is the condition so hard to define and how is it measured?

Event Committee

Katarina Wilhelmson
Niklas Ekerstad
Tommy Cederholm
Anne-Marie Boström
Elisabet Rydwick
Anne W Ekdahl

Contributors

Professor Timo Strandberg
Professor Dawn Skelton
Professor Leocadio Rodríguez Mañas
Niklas Ekerstad, MD, PhD
Professor Tommy Cederholm
Doctoral student Amelie Lindh Mazya, MD

Frailty: Opportunities and boundaries.

22nd of May, 2019
13.00 – 16.00
Gothenburg IAGG-ER

Welcome

Event Schedule

13.00 – 16.00

13.00-13.05	Welcome (Anne W Ekdahl)
13.05-13.30	Risk Factors of frailty (Timo Strandberg)
13.30-13.55	Frailty - Opportunities and Challenges (Dawn Skelton)
13.55-14.20	Answering to the challenges of frailty: From basic science to research on technology. (Leocadio Rodríguez Mañas)
14.20-14.40	Coffee ☕
14.40-15.00	Frailty from a clinical perspective (Tommy Cederholm)
15.00-15.20	Clinical Frailty Scale in the SWEDEHEART registry (Niklas Ekerstad)
15.20-15.40	Agreement of five frailty tools in a community dwelling population with high health care utilization (Amelie Lindh Mazyra)
15.40-16.00	Discussion (all)